A Pic from the Past

Water, Water Everywhere

Although this summer has been relatively dry, 29 years ago Mother Nature was at the other extreme!
In 1987, approximately 9 inches of rain fell through the night and morning of August 13 and 14. Flooding was widespread throughout the area.
This photo was taken near the intersection of Hattendorf and Bokelmann Streets where the water was waist deep.

The Roselle History Museum and your Library have digitized hundreds of photographs (like this one) from Roselle's past and created a collection on the Illinois Digital Archives (IDA) site. Learn more about the collection on the Library's website. Then try it yourself! Browse to the IDA and type a word or a name into the Search box.

Photography at Library Functions . . .
PLEASE NOTE: Attendance at programs/events sponsored by Roselle Public Library District constitutes consent to be photographed for purposes of Library advertising/publicity.
If you (or your family members) do not want to be photographed, you must notify the Library in writing.
