Roselle Public Library began as a Works Progress Administration (WPA) project in January 1940. The collection was originally housed in the Roselle Public School. In 1945, the Library rented this building at the corner of Park and Main Street. It was purchased by the Library Board in 1959. The building was enlarged in 1963 and again in 1971. In 1982, Library staff and patrons used grocery carts to move the collection to its current location at 40 S. Park.
